1973 Ford GT40#1094 Safir

Beautifully presented the 4th of four Safir GT40 MK5's registered 1973. The Safir engineering company based in Brooklands, bought the rights to produce the most evocative Ford ever made. Acquiring the title, the jigs, and had designer Len Bailey carry out some necessary modifications. The Mathwall-build 4.9ltr Ford V8 big-valve iron head engine, currently fitted with the MoTec engine management system, twin throttle bodies fuel injection and has the original Holey set up, quieter road use silencers and removal door tops.

SOLD