

1972 Lola T300#HU10 Formula 5000

Bought by Carl Hogan in 1972 for the L&M Continental Formula 5000 championship series in the United States, sponsored by Haggard Slacks and driven by David Hobbs and Brett Lunger. Sold to Garth Pollard in January 1975 and raced at Long Beach and Laguna Seca in the 75 season. Leased to Bert Kuehne in 1976 racing in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. Steven Burt purchased it in 1977 but didn't race. Brought into the UK in 1985 bought by Alex Seldon and then onto Geoff Thomas, racing in the HSCC Historics from 1987 winning the pre '71 F5000 class series. 2001 raced in the FORCE F1/5000 series. A race winning car, ready to race having been thoroughly prepared for the 2019 racing season. Currently fitted with the 5ltr Chevrolet V8 engine, only running in two races since rebuild, coming second at Silverstone 2019. Small spares package including a set of alloys with wet tyres.

SOLD